So, how does your sims campaign work? Click on the Live Campaign tool in the Campaigns menu, and then click on the "Start Campaign" button that appears in the campaign creator. You can now set your name and even specific day and date. Because we dont want you to lose all your money, we recommend always starting a campaign within your Sim budget! Start clicking on the sims in your town to begin collecting donations. Make sure you click on the "donate" button or your sims willnt be able to raise money. If youre hesitating, just press shift and your sims will automatically donate. As long as youre keeping regular Sim hours, everyone will be happy. We hope that you enjoyed this article! This concludes the Sims 4 presidential career guide for Sim City, to everything you learned about becoming an elected official. Remember, if youre interested in how to make your Sim city richer, check out the SimCity guide for tips! The charity love Is once again noticeable, but this time it comes from the people who are giving to your cause. While the donors on your donations don't respect you like the Sim who is your primary customer, they will appreciate the increased number of gifts they get and the slightly lower amount of money you have to hand over in return. You can even ask your Sims to donate money on your behalf with the donation request interaction. The best and most convenient thing to do is to ask for money with a bribe-empathy check. A reward of $50 will be given to the Sim once they have given you $1,000 in total. This can be repeated twice a day (with the same Sim) to increase the amount of money your Sims donate.
